Mental Health Workbook-

David Lawson, PhD

2020-11-03 Do you have unbearably low self-esteem? Sometimes shyness paralyzes you and prevents you from doing even the most trivial things. Have you tried to overcome shyness, but always end up feeling that you are worth nothing to anyone, even when your family or friends tell you otherwise? Are your doubts about yourself and your sanity? 7 books in 1: 1. Attachment Theory - Learn the founding principles of attachment theory and what they mean to you and understand how your thoughts and feelings about relationships impact anxious, avoidant, and even secure attachment behaviors. 2. Insecure Attachment - Learn how to overcome anxiety in relationships using compassionate self-awareness, a technique that can help you recognize your negative thoughts or unhealthy behavior patterns and respond to them in a nurturing way-rather than beating yourself up. 3. Codependency - In a crisis, it's easy to revert to old patterns. Caring for your well-being during the coronavirus pandemic includes maintaining healthy boundaries and saying no to unhealthy relationships. Is someone else's problem your problem? If, like so many others, you've lost sight of your own life in the drama of tending to someone else's, you may be codependent. 4. Borderline Personality Disorder - If you've been diagnosed with BPD you may feel a number of emotions-including shock, shame, sadness, abandonment, emptiness, or even anger. Even worse, you may be tempted to research your diagnosis online, only to find doomsday scenarios and terrible prognoses everywhere you click. Take a deep breath. You can get through this-and this workbook will help guide you. 5. Cognitive Behavioural Therapy (CBT) - this technique will teach you how to challenge (and defeat) negative and automatic thoughts, understand how mental patterns are established and block vicious circles. 6. Dialectical Behaviour Therapy (DBT) - This method was originally created to treat individuals who struggle with suicidal thoughts, but has matured into a treatment for many other conditions that involve dysfunctional emotional regulation. 7. Acceptance and Commitment Therapy (ACT) - This therapy focuses on the problem of human suffering - an important factor in achieving a good life. It also has the capability to successfully deal with much deeper issues. You may find yourself talking to yourself in these terms: - There is nothing that I really like about myself. - Only others manage to feel good about themselves. - I am not worthy to look for the things that interest me. - It's all my fault, I can't find people who are good to me. - Good people would never be with someone like me. Over time, negative thoughts can become so frequent that the individual ends up living them as facts. It creates a real vicious circle that is difficult to stop and can prove itself to be dangerous. Nobody is born with high self-esteem: we have to build it. It is never too late to change and free yourself from negativity. Feel good about themselves can be a difficult process, but it's worth it!

The Purple Land-William Henry Hudson 2016-12-05 First published in 1885, "The Purple Land" is a novel by Argentinian naturalist and author William Henry Hudson. It tells the story of a young Englishman called Richard Lamb who elopes with a teenage Argentinian girl to Uruguay. Once there, Lamb sets off to find work, but instead finds himself at the centre of an epic adventure. This exciting and beautifully-written page-turner is not to be missed by fans and collectors of Hudson's wonderful work, and it would make for a worthy addition to any collection. William Henry Hudson (1841 - 1922) was an Argentinian naturalist, author, and ornithologist. He was one of the founding members of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds, and is best known for his novel "Green Mansions" (1904).
